

Parent Support Group Meeting

*Support groups bring together people facing similar issues.
Members of support groups often share experiences and advice.
It can be helpful just getting to talk with other people who are in similar situations.*

Parents and families are invited to attend a Parent Support Group meeting hosted by IN*SOURCE. This group will meet every other month. The focus of this meeting is to support parents and families by offering presentations, holding Q & A sessions, having guest speakers at each meeting, and providing a network for support.
